HALTED AT FRONTIERS BY STEAMSHIP TRUST

Immigrants Told Tickets by Independent Lines Were Not Good for Passage.

TESTIMONY AT HEARING

Government Witnesses say They Were Held Up on Way to America.

The second day's session of the steamtrust inquiry in the Federal Building vesterday was marked by the Government's introduction of evidence tending show that certain of the defendant mes had held up immigrants on the German and Russian frontiers with representations that tickets purchased from ndependent lines for passage to America were not good and that they would have to purchase other tickets from them. A score or more witnesses, recent immigrants of Russian, Polish and Lithuanian extraction, men and women, were examined with respect to these allegations. Matthew Malinowsky, a ticket agent for the Uranium Steamship Company at New Britain, Conn., testified that he had o foreigners residing in New Britain be sent abroad for relatives coming this country. Many of these tickets ere sent back, he said, because their recipients had been told they could not e used for passage. In some cases he in others sold them tickets of other lines. Samuel J. Beckerman of Yonkers told date. of buying a ticket from the Northwest Transport Company, also an independent ine and sending it to his wife in Illowo,

Russian frontier. She returned home in disgust and never came to this country. The other witnesses told stories of the same tenor, and most of the testimony was objected to by former United States Senator John C. Spooner of Wisconsin and the other counsel for the defence. The hearing will go on to-day.

However, very few specul tors took advantage of the opportunity and the mere fact that he market was stron; utterly failed to rouse the drooping spirits of brokers, busi-ness getters and other people who depend directly or indirectly on commissions for a livelihood. It was three months later before Mrs. Beckerman and her children finally landed at the Holland-America pier in Hoboken.

Leon Konciewitz testified that he bought two tickets of the Uranium Steamship Company for his brother and sister, and that both were held up on the German frontier with the same old story about their tickets being no good. They were aventually compelled to buy other tickets from the Golland-America Line and sailed for America from Rotterdam.

One Rescued From Colorado Pit! After Explosion.

TRINIDAD, Col., June 19.—Thirteen men were entombed in the Hastings mine of the Victor American Fuel Company here today. One man was rescued alive an hour later

A "windy shot" is believed to have been responsible for the explosion, which choked the entrances of the main shaft.
A large force of rescuers is at work attempting to burrow through the debris to the imprisoned men. Air is being forced into the entry, but little hope is held that the men are now alive. Those who first entered the shaft said they saw bodies in the darkness. The only miner rescued was badly burned.
